Mr. Chamberlain presents his Compliments to The Visconde de Inhambupe, Councellor, Minister, and Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and acknowledging the receipt of the Office of His Excellency dated the 16th Instant, with its several Inclosures, has the honour to acquaint His Excellency, that he shall direct the British Vice Consul at Santos to furnish all the particulars of the case of the British Schooner Eliza Ann, Fitton Master, stated to have arrived at that Port with the Rigging of an American Vessel wrecked upon the English Bank in the River Plate; — and, as soon as those particulars are received, Mr. Chamberlain will not fail to comply with the Request made by His Excellency, in obedience to the

the Commands of His Imperial Majesty.

In the mean time he has the honour to renew to His Excellency, M. le Vicomte de Inhambupe, the Assurances of his particular Esteem and Consideration.

Rio de Janeiro 29th June 1826.