30 de Junho 1826

Mr. Chamberlain, His Britannick Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires and Consul General, presents his compliments to M. le Vicomte de Inhambupe, Councillor, Minister, and Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and has the honour to remind His Excellency that he applied to His Excellency on the 19th Instant for an order for the delivery to His Britannick Majesty's Ship Wellesley, of a small iron Stream Cable, a flag, and some Signal Pendants belonging to His Majesty, which were put on board the Schooner Pilar when this Vessel was detained by His Majesty's Ship Redwing, and were there when the Pilar was seized as a Prize by the Imperial Brazilian Schooner of War

Emprehendedor

Compreheendedor — M. le Vicomte de Inhambupe had the goodness to inform Mr. Chamberlain, on the 20th Instant, that the requisite directions would be given by the Department of Marine for their delivery, but up to this time the requested Order for that purpose has not reached him.

He begs to renew, upon this occasion, to His Excellency, the assurances of his profound Respect and Consideration.
