Falmouth 23/4 1838 = Esteemed Friend =
We beg to advise thee that we were this morning informed of the Brazilian Ship Fluminense having been obliged to put into St Ives yesterday on her voyage from Rio de Janeiro for Brest with 180 Portuguese Emigrant Officers on board. The vessel has sustained some damage on the voyage, but we wrote to Capt Francisco da Silva Carvão recommending his continuing on his voyage with as little delay as possible. We may perhaps in a day or two be enabled to write to thee more particularly on this subject and remain meanwhile = Thine very respectfully = G & R. W Fox & Co = St Ives is about 25 miles from this place. = Chev.r Mello Mattos - Charge d'affaires from Brazil &c.

London 25.th April 1838 = Messrs G. & R. W Fox & Co.rs Falmouth = Gentlemen = I am favored with your esteemed Letter of the 23.d Instant, relative to the Brazilian Ship Fluminense, which had put into St Ives, but as I am without any orders from my Government on the subject I cannot interfere on this occasion. — A Box con = taining Sundries for His Imperial Majesty has been despatched from Custom House here, to your address p.r mail under Seals of office, for transmission to Brazils, I will therefore thank you to have the same carefully examined if possible and put in proper Order with di= rections to "Ill.mo e Ex.mo Snr. Francisco Carneiro de Campos, Ministro e Secretario d'Estado dos Negocios Estrangeiros, and to forward the same by the next packet for that City, under the immediate care of the Captain and furnishing me with an account of the expense attending it and the Captain's receipt for the same. Tasmain & Mattos= P.S. I shall be much obliged by your fur= nishing me with account of Expence for last quarter.

Está conforme.

Eustaquio Adolfo de Mello Matto.
