His Excellency The Viscount de Inhambupe, Councillor, Minister, and Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, being so well acquainted with the circumstances which have rendered the position of the British Judge Conservator particularly embarrassing will be fully able to appreciate the motives for an Appeal to His Excellency's Justice on the behalf of that deserving Magistrate; and in placing before His Excellency the accompanying Copy of a Petition which the said Judge has lately addressed to His

Imperial

Imperial Majesty, The Undersigned His Britannick Majesty's Plenipotentiary therefore feels it merely necessary to call to mind the Assurances of His Excellency's Predecessor to hope that His Excellency's Intervention will further the object of the Writer.

The Undersigned has great pleasure in again renewing to His Excellency The Viscount de Inhambupe the Assurances of his perfect Esteem and Consideration.

Rio de Janeiro 10th May 1826.