Rio de Janeiro 19th July 1826.

M. Le Vicomte,

Understanding that the Brig Schooner of War, Emprehendedor, arrived in this Harbour yesterday afternoon, I have the honour to repeat the demand made in the name of the British Government in my Letter to Your Excellency dated the 14th Instant, that the Commander and all the Individuals belonging to that Vessel concerned in the plunder of the Pilar off Princes Island, may be immediately seized and brought to justice: — and further that Her Commander, M. Pauthier, may be called upon to produce forthwith the private Log Book of Mr. Fauconer, which he compelled

To,
His Excellency
The Visconde de Inhambupe

compelled him to deliver up, and then illegally detained. —

Renewing to Your Excellency the protestations of my perfect Consideration and Respect, I have the honour to remain, M. le Vicomte,

Your Excellency's most obedient humble Servant,

J. Chamberlain
