Rio de Janeiro 4th August 1826

M. le Vicomte,

I took the liberty to address a short Note to Your Excellency on the 24th Ultimo, asking to be informed whether His Imperial Majesty's Government had taken any judicial measures against the Commander and Crew of the Brazilian Schooner of War, Emprehendedor, in consequence of the charges made against them by me, officially, in the Note I had the honour to address to Your Excellency on the 19th of the same Month: and also asking to be informed where the five Individuals belonging to the Crew of His Majesty's Ship Reduving, (one British Seamen and four Krooomen,) who were taken out of

To His Excellency
The Viconde de Inhambupe &c — &c — &c

of the detained Spanish Schooner Pilar, when she was taken possession of as a Pirate and a Prize by the Imprehendedor, are now to be found.

To that Note Your Excellency has not yet favoured me with an Answer.

Wherefore, I again take the liberty to request Your Excellency to be so good as to afford me at least some information touching the place where these five Individuals are to be found, and spoken with: and I press this request with still more anxiety than at first, in consequence of the apparently well authenticated Accounts, publickly circulated, of the arbitrary and barbarous Acts committed by the Commander of the Imprehendedor upon some of the unhappy persons who fell into his power.

I beg to renew to Your Excellency the Assurances of the profound profound Consideration and Respect with which I have the honour to be, Monsieur le Vicomte,

Your Excellency's most obedient humble Servant

A. Chamberlain
