cruelly assaulted by The Police. — And he has also the honor to inform His Excellency that a number of respectable persons, eye witnesses to the fact, are ready to prove both the peaceable and inoffensive demeanour of the Servants of The Undersigned, and the unjustifiable manner in which the aggressors conducted themselves on this occasion. —

It is with the most perfect confidence that The Undersigned expects from the known justice of The Imperial Government, that satisfaction which is due to the Character which The Undersigned has the honor to fill at the Court of His Imperial Majesty. —
