Most Excellent Sir!

I have the honor to apprize your Excellency of my arrival at this place, as the successor of the late Mr. Tudor; and to request that your Excellency will be pleased to let me know at what time I may have the further honor of being permitted to present my letter of credence, as Chargé d'affaires of the United States of America, near the government of his Majesty, the Emperor of Brazil.

Your Excellency
will receive, with this note, several dispatches entrusted to my care by the Brazilian

Chargé d'affaires at Washington.

With high regard, and distinguished consideration,
I have the honor to be Your Excellency's obedient Servant,
Henry Le Breton

Rio de Janeiro.
February 16. 1831.

To his Excellency
Mr. Francisco Carneiro
de Campos.
Councillor, Minister, and Secretary of State, for Foreign Affairs.
