Libel
U.S vs Juneal

Baltimore 16th May 1828

That said vessel Juneal formerly the Cammilla belonging to the Port of Baltimore sailed on a voyage from B. Ayres under Command of Capt Yonnier to Port of Baltimore with money and sundry packages of Skins, as Cargo, with which she anchored & the Cargo landed — that said Yonnier did seize and Capture as Prize the Brig Homer and take sundry articles from on board said Brig, and brought the same to the Port of Baltimore, and did send the said brig into the Port of New York — said Yonnier did also Capture a fishing vessel off Cape Frere on the Coast of Brazil, from which he took all the Cargo, fishing apparatus, sails, rigging &c together with 12 Negroes and put the same on board the Juneal and brought the same into the Port of Baltimore with intent to sell and dispose of the same as slaves and did land the same at Balto where they now are — That afterwards on the voyage aforesaid said Yonnier did Capture an American schooldate Brig which was plundered of every thing valuable on board and was then burnt. the Crew and passengers consisting of men and women were searched and plundered of their money Jewels and other valuables & then were put on board a launch boat & sent on shore at the distance of about 30 miles and had a large sum of money to wit $10.000 and other valuable goods &c were taken from said Brig and put on board the Juncal and brought to Baltimore which said goods when Captured were entered upon a false and forged manifest as part of the actual Cargo of Juncal Supp posing to have been put on board at the port of B. Ayres - that afterwards on the said voyage the former Captured another vessel with troops on board and took therefrom all the valuable property found on board - did search the men take their money & valuables - did cause the Capt of said vessel to be hung up by the neck to extort a confession from him of any money or Jewels that were concealed on board said vessel and did confine the crew and troops below on board said vessel did cause the Yards Sails and riggins to be cut away and thro overboard and after taking all the goods & valuab on board the Juncal did leave said vessel upon the high Seas in a sinking Condition and did then proceed in the said Juncal to St Barts & did try to sell and dispose of the said negros but being unable to effect the same did then proceed to the port of Baltimore - that said Gonnier did whil the Juncal was lying at the port of Baltimore take on board four Cannon Guns as an increase of the armament. —

(over)

The facts herein set forth are established by a number of Depositions which have been sent to the Secretary of State —

E. J. Cone

Facts stated in the Libel
United States
vs
The Pancake