Mr Chamberlain presents his compliments to the Visconde de D'Inhambupé, Councillor, Minister, and Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and begs to acquaint His Excellency that the Portuguese Vessel "Conde dos Arcos", respecting which he addressed His Excellency, officially, on the 24th June last, arrived in this Harbour on the night of the 1st Instant bringing a Cargo of 419 Slaves from Ambriz.

Mr. Chamberlain does not doubt that the promised enquiries respecting the legality of this Vessels' Voyage will be gone into, and hopes that His Excellency will favour him with the result.

Ho

He begs to renew to His Excellency the Assurances of his perfect Esteem and ~~[illegible]~~

Mr Chamberlain presents his compliments to the Viscounde de Inhambupe, Brazilian Minister, and requests the favour of his Excellency's offering, and keep to acquaint His Majesty, that the Portuguese Vessel de Deus, restoring which he addressed His Excellency officially on the 24th June last, arrived in this Harbour on the night of the 1st Instant bringing a Cargo of 419 Slaves from Mahon.

Mr Chamberlain does not doubt that the promised enquiries respecting the legality of this Vessel's Cargo will be given with, and hopes that His Excellency will favour him with the result

Rio de Janeiro
3rd October 1826