Mediação entre o Brazil e a República da Prata & pour la cessation des hostilités

Copy. Sig. Zuglera

Projet

Whereas the Ministers of the Mediating Power desirous to put an immediate end to the hostilities at present unhappily subsisting between the Emperor of Brazil & the Republick of la Plata have suggested an armistice, the said belligerent Parties have mutually agreed to accept the same, as set forth in the following Articles. —

Art

Art: I. –

There shall be an immediate cessation of hostilities by Land and by Sea, the two Powers reserving to themselves their respective Rights and pretentions as they existed before the War. –

Art: II. –

The two contracting Parties, being desirous to – effectuate a just and – amicable agreement upon the Question which has formed the

the object of the war, it is agreed to request the Mediation of the British Government, in order to provide by a definitive Treaty for the future good of the Cisplatine Province. — His Imperial Majesty promising with the aid of the Legislative Assembly of the Empire to erect the said Province into a free, separate, and Independent State. —

Art: III.

It being a principal object to settle the differences between between the two Countries without any cause of provocation existing on either side, the immediate cessation of — hostilities is agreed to, upon the principle of the "Statu quo" of the Belligerents, It being understood, that during the continuance of the armistice H.I.M. on His part shall not occupy militarily any other points in the Banda Oriental than those at present in the military occupation of occupation of H. I. My's forces, and that the Forces under the command of General Lavalleja shall remain within the limits of their present positions.

Art: IV.

In the event / which God forbid / that in the Negociation to be entered into after the signature of these Articles, a mutual agreement upon the respective differences should not be effected, and that a definitive Peace should should not be confirmed by the intervention of Great Britain, it is reciprocally agreed, not to recommence hostilities after the rupture of the above mentioned negotiation, until after having previously given twelve months notice thereof.

Art. V.

During the — continuation of this Armistice no person shall be questioned by either party for his political conduct conduct during the war. —