Captain Tylden

Mr Rebeiro,

Sir,

From my being disappointed in receiving some pecuniary supplies, from sources that I had every reason to expect, I have been compelled to contract a loan for one hundred Mexican Dollars, this Gentleman has very kindly advanced me the sum of two hundred dollars, without which, I should have been much inconvenienced, in sailing from this country, now until this moment have I found it impracticable, to procure a passage to this although several applications have been made during the last 40 days. yet there where obstacles that could not overcome, such as some of the Capells filled the cabins entirely with freight Those who were not so, those owners on account of ties as they term them, in search of a market no doubt as a good (Clean-Cut with none whatever that could afford me a passage to that has no attraction but to waste pat ently, until the time, when I shan the prospect of sailing the moment that the wind becomes favourable,

I shan take the liberty of giving Miss Brown an order upon you for the money loaned me, and most respe ctfully request that you will please to ca to be attended to, If you wish proper th should refund the money to your agent a Bd de Janeiro, I shall be most happy t do so, when you write me a Rio. (If the can of the American Consul,) informin me of the manner that you would wish the money paid, ——

In concluding allow me to thank you for the many acts of kin ness that you have shewn me during my stay in this country, and I believe me to be with the highest consideration your
