It is with the deepest Concern that the Earl of Aberdeen, one of His late Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has the Honour to acquaint the Chevalier de Mattos, Charge d'Affaires of His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, that it has pleased Almighty God to take unto Himself His most gracious and Excellent Majesty George the Fourth.

His Majesty expired at the Castle at Windsor, this morning at a quarter past three o'Clock, to the great Affliction of all the Royal Family, and of all Classes of His Majesty's Majesty's Subjects.

Lord Aberdeen is persuaded that The Chevalier de Matos will participate in the general grief which this melancholy event has occasioned, and requests that he will accept the assurances of his high consideration.
