Lord Dunglas presents his compliments to the Chevalier Mattos and requests he will have the goodness to furnish him with a tarif of the Consular fees which the Brazilian Consuls in England consider themselves entitled to demand upon British Ships and cargoes clearing out from this Country for the Brazils.

Foreign Office
March 26. 1830.