Lord Dunglas presents his Compliments to the Chevalier de Mattos, and regrets to be under the necessity of returning to him the enclosed Note, with a request that he will have the goodness to conform to the usual custom upon such occasions, by specifying the Articles contained in the Case, in order that the necessary directions may be forwarded to the Treasury, for the delivery of the same free of duty.

Foreign Office,
October 30th. 1830.