Her Majesty's Consul at Tripoli has consented to the Midshipman's having leave of absence to proceed to the Levant in a Merchant Vessel in order to take charge of the Mail for Malta. Captain Hamilton requests to state that he has written a note to Commodore Biddle, requesting him to send a Boat with an Officer to the Palace Steps at ½ hour 8 o'clock this evening, with orders to wait until 10 o'clock if necessary, for the purpose of receiving any letters which Mr. Consul may wish to send to His Majesty. He Imperial Consul will be conveyed on board the Brig Commerce, and placed under the particular care of the Captain

M. Raguet will be happy, if there appears will be meet the wishes of Sir Robert Ouseley, when he begs to accept of the assurance of his esteem and respect.
