British Consulate Bahia

Pursuant to a warrant of Survey unto us directed by Edward Porter Esquire Her Britannic Majestys Consul for this City and Province of Bahia dated the 30th of June 1849 requesting us to examine into the condition of the British Brig "Croedale" of Sunderland of 294 Tons burthen or thereabouts we the undersigned repaired on board and fully concurring in the Correctness of the Report of the Imperial Arsenal dated 26th June we recommend as the best Course to be adopted that the said ship should be sold here on the best terms obtainable, as being the most beneficial to all parties interested.
Thus we have done and do now report at Bahia under our hands upon oath this third day of July one thousand
