II - ARQUIVO HISTÓRICO DO ITAMARATY -

Rio de Janeiro

October 18 - 1825.

The Undersigned His Britannic

Majesty's Plenipotentiary, in agreeing to the Fourth Article of the present

Treaty, relative to the obligations of the Consuls of both Countries, thinks it necessary to remark that, while they enjoy no privilege, or Exemption from the operation of the

Their Excellencies

The Brazilian Plenipotentiaries

Laws, in matters connected with their private or personal debts, it must be understood that, according to the practice obserked in England, they are not to be consideked liable for the claims upon their Country, or upon their Countrymen, nor are they to be held responsible in any case whatever, to which they shall not, by some voluntary act of their own, have rendered themselves liable —.

ARQUIVO HISTÓRICO DO ITAMARATY

The Undersigned avails himself of this opportunity to renew to Their Excellencies the Brazilian Plenipotentiaries the assurances of his highest consideration.
